Introducing our high-quality plastic badge holder, meticulously crafted to meet your identification needs. With dimensions of 2.68"x4.33" (68x110mm), this holder provides ample space to securely display your identification cards or badges. The robust construction ensures durability, offering a long-lasting solution for your everyday use. It features a practical design with a total of 1 pocket, allowing you to efficiently organize and carry your essential cards.

Ideal Insert Size for Customization

The badge holder is designed with an insert size of 2.12"x3.38" (54x86mm), offering an ideal canvas for customization. The set price includes the full-color printing of your logo and background on both the front and back of the holder, allowing you to create a personalized and professional look. Whether you choose to display your brand logo, event information, or other relevant details, the customization options are extensive, providing you the flexibility to tailor the holder to your unique requirements.

Note on Blank Inserts

It's important to note that the holder comes blank without an insert. This feature allows you the freedom to personalize the content of the badge according to your specific needs. Whether you opt for a simple identification card or a more detailed informational insert, the choice is yours. This flexibility ensures that the badge holder serves as a versatile accessory suitable for various contexts.

Complete Solution for Identification

In summary, our plastic badge holder offers a complete solution for your identification requirements. Its sturdy construction, practical design, and customization options make it a versatile accessory for events, conferences, and everyday use. With the added convenience of full-color printing and the freedom to insert your desired content, this badge holder is a reliable and customizable tool for effective identification management.
