Blank Premium Leather Holders

Discover the epitome of sophistication with our High-Quality PU Leather Badge Holder. Boasting a size of 2 5/6"x4 1/3" (72x110mm), this holder provides an ideal canvas for your identification needs. Crafted from top-notch PU leather, it not only exudes a premium look but also ensures durability, making it a reliable accessory for various professional and formal occasions.

Dual-Pocket Design for Added Functionality

Equipped with two pockets—one on the front and one on the back—the badge holder offers a dual-purpose design. This feature adds an element of practicality, allowing you to conveniently store multiple identification cards or badges. The well-thought-out layout ensures easy access and visibility, contributing to a seamless identification experience.

Versatile Color Options and Attachment Recommendation

Choose from our range of five stock colors—black, blue, brown, red, and pink—to align the badge holder with your brand colors or personal preferences. For secure fastening and ease of use, we recommend the Lobster Claw attachment. The Lobster Claw not only provides a reliable hold but also complements the overall aesthetic, ensuring a polished and professional appearance.

Blank Slate for Customization

It's important to note that the holder comes blank, providing you with a blank slate for customization. This intentional design feature allows you to personalize the badge content, whether it's company branding, event details, or individual identification. The customizable nature of the badge holder ensures that it can be tailored to meet your unique requirements.

In summary, our High-Quality PU Leather Badge Holder strikes the perfect balance between style and functionality. With its dual-pocket design, versatile color options, and recommended Lobster Claw attachment, it stands as a versatile accessory for various settings. Elevate your identification experience with this premium badge holder that combines aesthetics with practicality.
